

JULY 4

NEWPORT, TENN.

MILITARY BAND

Automobile Parade

Herbert Masters, Manager

For the nicest and best decorated car

First prize$15.00
Second prize$10.00
Third prize$ 5.00

Pony Parade

W. G. Purkey, Manager

Most attractive and best decorated pony rig,
driven by boy or girl under 15 years of age—

First prize$5.00
Second prize$3.00
Third prize$2.00

Bicycle Parade

T. R. Cline, Manager

The best decorated wheel

First prize$3.00
Second prize$2.00

Grand Military Parade of Boy Scouts

Rev. J. A. Morrow, Manager

Best drilled boy—

First prize$3.00
Second prize$2.00

Largest Load of People

on one four-wheel wagon, all from the same Civil

District$10.00

G. C. Duncan, Manager

Climbing Greasy Pole

Twenty feet high. For the successful man or boy—

$7.00 7-Jewel Watch

Given by GLENN'S, "That Busy Store"

Baby Show

Managers—Mrs. Geo. F. Smith, Mrs. Frank Taylor
and Mrs. John M. Stokely

The most perfect baby under two years of age—

First prize$5.00
Second prize$2.50

Prettiest Girl on the Ground

$6.00 Ansco Camera

Given by MINNIS DRUG CO., "The House of Quality."

Foot Race

100 yard dash—

$4.00 pair of Walk-Over Oxfords

Given by C. E. McNABB & COMPANY

Best Looking Married Lady on Ground

200 pounds Lassen's Perfection Flour

Given by TAYLOR'S, "The Big Store"

Any information as to entrance, see Frank Taylor

Man With the Largest Foot

A pair of $3.50 Bostonian Shoes

Given by STOKELY, JONES & COMPANY

Best Lady Horseback Rider

First prize$5.00 Parasol

Second prizeBest $1.50 pair Ladies' Silk Hose

Given by RUBLE BROTHERS

Best Man Horseback Rider

One Box Black and White Cigars

Given by SMITH DRUG CO.

Largest Family on Grounds

25 pound bag Granulated Sugar

Given by ROWE BROS., The Leading Grocery Store

Best Decorated Single Buggy

Outside of the city limits to be driven in parade that day, a $5.00 Hat

Given by J. M. KYKER & SON

Best Looking Single Lady

on the ground, $3.50 Rocker

Given by DRISKILL & PARROTT

Best Saddle Mare

to be ridden in the parade that day

$3.50 Bridle

Given by W. G. PURKEY

BASEBALL GAME

Between the Newport and Jefferson City Teams

Any information in regard to any of the entries, see the manager under that head

SEE the FAIRY FLOAT

Half Fare Rates on the Tennessee & North Carolina Railroad